

I'm opposed to the proposed changes to existing law -- I firmly believe the existing limits on ownership are necessary to secure diversity in programming and opportunities for workers in the media.